LATHAM, CAPT. THOMAS Licensed 1879

Born 1853 in Wales and arrived Astoria

Lost 1911 on Oshkosh
as apprentice on British bark Channel Light.
Worked on Flavel tugs until mate of Brenham.

Left bar pilots in November, 1908, to run tugs on Yaquina bay but returned after a year. Left Tillamook Feb. 11, 1911
as master of Elmore's gas schooner Oshkosh for Umpqua river but turned north in face of blinding storm.

Half mile off south jetty, Oshkosh turned turtle, drowning Latham and six for fear he would guide other vessels to the Columbia fur country. On Oct 31, 1843, after loss of another officer, Dr. John McLoughlin was forced to promote Lattie to second mate of bark VANCOUVER, THE FIRST ship to enter Victoria harbor from London.

Settled at Chinook in 1846 after he was again fired. Wrote to Douglas in 1847
See James Douglas.

2. Alexander Lattie

Red wine apparently was Lattie's downfall since numerous bills for cases of wine were found among his possessions and this may be the reason he finally fell into disfavor with authorities at Ft. Vancouver. Writing to a friend at the upriver fort from Ft. George to Douglass Cook begging pitifully for another chance.

In the recently discovered letter, Lattie said he was destitute and begged again to be received into the
